

Cafe Le Monde and Max Judo

I got an email on Thursday afternoon, inviting me to a surf art and memorabilia charity auction that was on that night. It was being held at Le Monde Cafe a very groovy little establishment in the base of the new 'Kirra Surf' building.

There may be better ways to spend a balmy summer evening but I couldn't think of one at the time so I trotted off down there as quick as I could..Turned out to be a great decision!!

The Auction was organised to raise money for the victims of the massive floods in Fiji and also to raise more funds for the Bush Fire Appeal.

A few people scored bargains in the auction, but unfortunately most items were passed over.

Bobby Blue started off the entertainment with some nice Blues and Jazz tunes... he was accompanied on several numbers with Julian Hogdens.

The North Coast band Max Judo came on and got the place rocking. I've never seen these guys play before but I've heard a lot about them.

I was honestly blown away by how good they really were... Every song they played was worthy of a live Album.....

They really have a tight professional act, it's no wonder they've started to do well internationally. Touring in the U.S for half the year...

Make sure you check out their web site and read about what they've been up to... maxjudo.com

Later in the evening the beautiful Fijian ladies who had flown up from Sydney came on stage to sing some island style harmonys. A perfect way to wind down the night.

Over all it was a great night, with great music, in a great venue with great atmosphere..
